Six Saboteurs Die In Electric Chair

Pay With Lives In Capitol Jail At Noon Today

Two Of Eight Spared—Burger Gets Life Imprisonment—Dasch Gets 30 Years

INTERNATIONAL NEWS "BEAT" IS CONFIRMED

Formal Announcement Of Execution Made By Secretary Stephen Early

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Six Hitler-trained Nazi saboteurs were electrocuted here today in full expiation for their part in a German terrorist plot to sabotage American war industries, transportation and commerce.

The White House announced that the sextet, landed by German submarines on the coasts of Long Island and Florida in mid-June, had died in the electric chair at the District of Columbia jail.

The announcement completely confirmed a 24-hour beat by International News Service.

The six who paid with their lives in the chair were: Heinrich Harm Heinck, Robert Quirin, John Edward Kerling, Werner Thiel, Hermann Neubauer and Herbert Haupt. Heinck and Quirin landed on The Long Island coast June 13; the other four, led by Kerling, on the Florida coast June 17.

Two Spared
The lives of two other Nazi saboteurs, from the Long Island group, George John Dasch, its leader, and Ernest Peter Burger, were spared by the President. Burger was given life imprisonment and Dasch was given 30 years imprisonment.

The announcement of the executions was made by Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early at 1:25 p. m. (EWT). Calling reporters into his office, Early said:

"The execution of the six Nazi saboteurs has taken place in the district jail. They started at noon. Of the other two, one was given life imprisonment at hard labor, that was Burger, and the president has commuted the sentence of Dasch to 30 years at hard labor."

Early then gave an official statement to the assembled reporters. The text of it read:

"The present completed his review of the findings and sentences of the military commission appointed by him on July 2, 1942, which tried the eight Nazi saboteurs."

"The president approved the judgment of the military commission that all of the prisoners were guilty."

Predicts Committee Will Rip Tax Bill

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, (R) Mich., today predicted that the senate Finance committee will "rip to pieces" the $6,271,000,000 house-approved tax bill in order to remove inequities.

"This committee will rip the bill to pieces to such an extent that it will have to go to a sales tax to get revenue," he said.

The house measure, Vandenberg said, contains so many provisions which would disrupt business and hamper war production that it must be revised in wholesale fashion.

"In some provisions the bill is completely confiscatory," he said.

"Certainly the committee must abandon the provision placing fiscal year corporations on a calendar year basis in order to avoid excessive taxation."

"The withholding tax of five per cent, in its present form, is unworkable. I have a letter from a large firm which says that it simply cannot buy enough business machines to do the work required under the withholding tax provision."

Post War Credit
"Obviously the committee has to cut the 45 per cent normal corporation tax and obviously there must be a post-war credit."

The committee on Monday will decide in secret session whether it (Continued On Page Two)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—A woeful shortage of steel is impeding shipment of American aid to Australian and other fronts, Sen. Harry S. Truman, (D) Mo., chairman of a special senate committee investigating the shortage, disclosed today.

Truman, who pointed out that President Roosevelt himself advocated expansion of steel production over the opposition of some of his advisers, said:

"The hearings we have held so far have caused me to conclude that there was organized opposition by the big steel firms against any new blast furnaces or rolling mills that would compete with them after the war. This is one of the causes of our present predicament."

"Bottleneck Is Steel"
Asked about Australian criticism that American supplies to that country are a "mere trickle," Truman said:

"The whole bottleneck is steel. If we could get plate and structural shapes we could possibly get ships. I am sure that this war would be over in six months if we could get on top of the shipping situation."

The records show that the Axis U-boat campaign has cost the United States and its allies slightly over 400 cargo, tanker and transport ships, or about the same number as this country built in 1941.

Dr. T. C. Pollock To Speak Sunday

Three Simultaneous Services To Mark Sunday Sessions Of Conference

Three simultaneous services will be held Sunday at 11 a. m., again at 4 p. m. and at 7:45 p. m. at the New Wilmington Missionary conference.

One will be held at the conference tent where outstanding figures in the missionary world will speak each evening this week. Another will be held in the chapel of Westminster College on whose campus the conference has been held for 37 consecutive years.

The third will be held at the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church which has been opened to the conference to accommodate the crowds which attend on Sunday.

Dr. Charles E. Scott of China will be the speaker in the conference tent at 11 o'clock and in the chapel at 7:45 p. m. He will be known to some as the missionary whose daughter and son-in-law, John and Betty Stam, were killed several years ago by Chinese bandits. He is leading the adult Bible hour at the conference every morning next week.

Curtiss Commando Plane Lands On Jammed Gears

Seven men aboard this giant Curtiss Commando, world's largest twin-engine transport plane, escaped injury when it made a belly landing at the Buffalo, N. Y., airport. The plane was undergoing a routine Army acceptance flight when an oil line in the hydraulic landing gear mechanism broke. For eight and a half hours the pilot circled the airport. When his gas ran out he pancaked the ship.

Allied Bombers Use U.S. Navy Attacks Ton Bombs At Rabaul Solomon Islands And Aleutians

By LEE VAN ATTA
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, Aug. 8.—The heaviest bombing raid of the war in the southwest Pacific was announced today in an Allied communique disclosing that a squadron of big long-range bombers attacked the Japanese airport at Rabaul on New Britain island with several one-ton bombs.

Fifteen tons of bombs were loosed on the Vunakanau airdrome, demolishing hangars and blasting great pits in the runways.

Seven of 20 Japanese Zeros were shot down as they attempted to intercept the Allied raiders. One Allied plane was lost.

Hit Target Area
The focus against Rabaul followed day and night raids on enemy bases at Lae and Salamaua, New Guinea, by strong forces of medium bombers. All bombs fell within the target area, causing heavy damage.

Big 2,000-pound bombs dug great craters in the runways. It was the first mention of bombs of this destructive power being used in this area.

Jap Professes Peace With Reds

Tries To Allay Growing Suspicion Of Stab In The Back Attack

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 8.—A Japanese military spokesman declared today that peace between Russia and Japan will be maintained as long as the U.S.S.R. "adheres strictly to the Soviet-Japanese neutrality pact."

His statement obviously was made in connection with growing Allied suspicions that Nippon is planning a new act of treachery in the form of an unannounced attack against Russia.

The spokesman's declaration was made in a broadcast from Tokyo recorded by Reuters' (British) News agency.

He emphasized at the same time the importance of Japan's strong defenses in the north.

The statement followed a previous broadcast of editorial comment from Tokyo strongly hinting that Tokyo was prepared to take advantage of the serious situation now prevailing in Russia.

"The terrific battling now in progress in the Caucasus, the newspaper Chugai Shogyo Shimpso said, 'should be borne in mind by Japan.'"

Then the newspaper added:

"With the approach of a decisive struggle between Russia and Germany, Japan too, should be prepared even more fully for ultimate victory."

MOSCOW, Aug. 8.—In an effort to outflank the fast-moving German armies driving toward the Maikop oil fields, Marshal Semyon Timoshenko today launched a counter-offensive from Voronezh, vital city on the upper Don River held by the Soviets in the face of ceaseless Nazi attacks.

Aimed at severing the German lines of communication upon which Nazi Field Marshal Fedor Von Bock's drive into the oil regions of the Caucasus depends, the new Soviet attack expanded swiftly over a wide area west of the Don.

The resolution calls for a civil disobedience campaign should Great Britain fail to comply with a demand to grant India independence.

Offers Reward In Linton Case

Acting upon the suggestion made by the coroner's jury following an inquest this week, District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson is leaving no stone unturned in an effort to try and discover the assailant of Walter F. Linton, who died in the Jameson Memorial hospital, July 16, of injuries received when he is believed to have been struck by someone, in or about the American Cafe at 30 West Washington street. He is offering a reward of $100 for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of Linton's assailant.

District Attorney Donaldson issued the following statement today:

"An effort sometimes is made to conceal a crime committed in or near a drinking place in order to protect the license. This may be such a case. A number of persons were at the American Cafe when the incident occurred, yet their identity is concealed. Moreover, a crude and dishonorable attempt has been made, apparently to mislead authorities, to involve an American soldier, Pvt. Hugh L. Murray Asks Labor Board For Help

Asks Board's Aid In Labor Dispute

Cites AFL Refusal To Permit CIO Installation On Defense Job

VALUABLE DAYS LOST IN WORK

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—With his characteristic bluntness, CIO President Philip Murray sought War Labor Board action today on his proposal that the AFL and the CIO set up an inter-organizational tribunal to arbitrate jurisdictional disputes and eliminate work stoppages in industries.

Murray sent his appeal to the labor board after reading newspaper reports quoting AFL President William Green to the effect that he had no authority to set up such a committee as proposed by the CIO.

Murray said he had repeated his offer to Green in his peace letter of last Sunday, adding:

"In replying the AFL tried to evade this most serious issue and newspapers quote Mr. Green as saying he is without power to agree on arbitration."

"The situation, he said is particularly acute in Michigan sheet metal plants under CIO contract."

"For instance," his telegram pointed out, "the AFL refuses to permit installation of work by CIO men at the aluminum plant in Flint, Mich., until the AFL has completed its work. Thirty or 40 valuable production days have thereby been lost."

"Scores of similar instances can be laid to the AFL door. Again I repeat the CIO offer to submit all such disputes to public members of the War Labor Board. What do you intend to do about this?"

"What effect the AFL stand might have on Murray's recent peace overtures was conjectured. In his letter last Sunday, the CIO president stipulated that Green must guarantee such a committee before "organic unity" conferences are started.

Again at 4 p. m. three services will be held in the same three places. At each service, a number of missionaries will relate brief stories of their experiences on the mission fields.

The Bible hour will begin at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow. Rev. Robert Smith of Greensburg, Ind., will address the boys of the conference at that hour and Rev. Will W. Orr of Des Moines, Iowa, will address the girls.

In the evening at 6:45 o'clock, the vespers services will be held. The boys will be addressed by Rev. Alex Fleming of Slippery Rock, and the girls by Miss Lois Kingman of Egypt.

At the service this evening in the conference tent, one speaker from each mission field supported by the United Presbyterian church will address the conference. Rev. Hugh E. Kelsey will represent the work in Egypt, Rev. James D. Brown will speak for India. Miss Mary Jane McKnight will be the speaker for the Sudan mission and Miss Isabel Blair will represent Ethiopia.

well on the way toward their immediate objectives.

In sharp contrast to recent gloomy news describing virtually unbroken German advances in areas only 60 miles from Maikop and at points dangerously close to the railway lines connecting northern Caucasus with the oil fields, front-line dispatches told of signal successes for the Russians.

Numerous German and Hungarian units were surrounded and destroyed as the drive got under way.

Many prisoners and great amounts of booty were captured.

Russian losses were described as almost negligible as the swift Soviet drive to the south got under way.

One garrison established by the Nazis was stormed and taken, clearing the way to an important unidentified town which was then captured after a break-through by crack Soviet troops equipped with automatic rifles.

Timoshenko's attack was launched at a moment when German troops had smashed Russian defense positions at one point in the vicinity of Armavir, which straddles the railway and pipe-line connecting the Grozny oil district with the Black Sea.

The Germans were surging on toward Tuapse and Novorossiisk, and reached a point midway between Kotelnikovo and the Volga river farther north.

This German drive was aimed toward Astrakhan the rich and populous city on the northern reaches of the Black Sea which was the objective Adolf Hitler had mapped for the German army to reach before Christmas last year.

New Soviet retreats were admitted in the area south of Kusevskaya, where Cossack units were thrown back under the weight of overwhelming enemy forces.

Concentrating all their strength, the Germans struck a lightning blow with great masses of tanks and artillery. A few units held firm under the barrage but at length the whole Russian line was bent as the Soviets sought new positions to the south.

The Army was given complete charge of the Nazis by order of President Roosevelt and will carry out the executions that were imposed by the military commission that found them guilty of sabotage and espionage.

In keeping with this authority, the Army closed the jail to all outside communication, ordered its armed soldier guards doubled throughout the prison, and directed that all civil prisoners be held in their cells indefinitely.

A request of the United States Marshal for the District of Columbia, to remove some prisoners from the jail, just after 10 a. m., was refused by Brig. Gen. Albert L. Cox, provost marshal, who is in charge of the executions. A U. S. Marshal's van was admitted to the jail yard but was forced to depart without the prisoners, who were wanted in the District's courts.

As a result, some District courts were forced to close, because of the lack of prisoners.

The jail's isolation was so complete that District officials were unable to complete telephone calls to jail officials. It was apparent the Army had taken over the jail completely and was holding even responsible prison officials incommunicado.

At 11:30 o'clock, District court officials were informed that they could get civil prisoners out of the jail after 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

District officials, telephoning the jail to speak to certain officials there, were told—apparently by Army officers—that the "officials were on special detail." This answer given when one person asked to speak to the prison official, who is assigned to strap convicted murderers in the death chair.

Earlier, the jail's civil officials—apparently acting under Army orders—refused admission to all visitors and denied newspapermen use of prison telephones—a courtesy that had been extended them for the last few days. Access of newspapermen to nearby Gallinger Hospital also was revoked, without reason, a bit later.

Soldiers Guard
At 10:50 a. m., a detachment of armed soldiers were thrown around the front of the jail, where newspapermen and photographers were congregated. It was the first time since the Nazis were imprisoned there that armed soldiers guarded the front of the jail. Heretofore, they have been kept within its walls or on post at the sides.

An Army lieutenant posted his men and that too was unusual. For the last three days, the outside guards have been posted by a corporal.

These extraordinary precautions against a "leak" led to deductions that the executions were actually starting.

At his 10:30 press conference, Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early declined to shed any light on what was happening to the saboteurs. In response to a direct question, Early said:

"On the question of the eight prisoners in the District jail, there is yet no news for you."

He declined to amplify the statement for fear his words might be misconstrued.

Henry Bollinger, aged 66, died Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Lawrence county home.

Mr. Bollinger, who was born in Loudenville, O., in October, 1875, leaves no known survivors.

The body has been removed to the Howard L. Reynolds funeral home, 909 Adams street. Services will be held Monday and interment will be made in the county home cemetery.

Mrs. Sara Margaret Blair, aged 88, of Princeton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira White, with whom she had been residing for the past month, Friday at midnight. Mrs. Blair had been ill for a month.

Mrs. Blair, born in Slippery Rock township on October 8, 1853, a daughter of James H. and Rebecca Sharp Munnell, had spent her entire life in Lawrence county.

On January 1, 1872, she was married to James Alford Blair, who preceded her in death 16 years ago. She was a member of Mt. Herman Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Blair, the last surviving member of her family, was the mother of nine children, three of whom are living. They are Mrs. Bertina White of Princeton, Mrs. Blanch Myers of Princeton, and Robert Floyd Blair of Scott, W. Va.

She is survived, also, by 17 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

The body, now at the R. L. Boyd funeral home, North Jefferson street, will be taken late this afternoon to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira White of Princeton. Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the White home with Rev. J. M. Blackwood, pastor of the Oak Grove United Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be in Mt. Herman cemetery, near Princeton.

Callahan Services
Funeral services for Anthony S. James Callahan were conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 115 East Moody avenue, with Rev. J. W. Newman and Rev. G. W. Woodrow in charge.

Two appropriate selections were sung during services by Mrs. Stanley Callahan.

Palbearers, all attorneys, were Edward Rea, Gilbert Long, Elder Bryan, Ralph Cooper, R. L. Hildebrand and Charles Young.

Interment was in Oak Park cemetery.

Services for Mr. Callahan were attended in a body by members of the Lawrence County Bar Association.

Hudson Services
Funeral services for George R. Hudson, R. D. 1, Edenburg, were conducted from the Hodge funeral home, East Wallace avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. W. R. Vaughn, pastor of the Edenburg Christian church, in charge.

Active pallbearers were Tom Nelson, Samuel Spencer, Henry Jacobs, James Allen, George Chako and Jack Bob. Honorary pallbearers were Wayne Berkeley and Oscar Altman.

Interment was in Castle View Burial Park.

The body has been removed to the Howard L. Reynolds funeral home, 909 Adams street. Services will be held Monday and interment will be made in the county home cemetery.

Mrs. Sara Margaret Blair, aged 88, of Princeton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira White, with whom she had been residing for the past month, Friday at midnight. Mrs. Blair had been ill for a month.

Mrs. Blair, born in Slippery Rock township on October 8, 1853, a daughter of James H. and Rebecca Sharp Munnell, had spent her entire life in Lawrence county.

On January 1, 1872, she was married to James Alford Blair, who preceded her in death 16 years ago. She was a member of Mt. Herman Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Blair, the last surviving member of her family, was the mother of nine children, three of whom are living. They are Mrs. Bertina White of Princeton, Mrs. Blanch Myers of Princeton, and Robert Floyd Blair of Scott, W. Va.

She is survived, also, by 17 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

The body, now at the R. L. Boyd funeral home, North Jefferson street, will be taken late this afternoon to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira White of Princeton. Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the White home with Rev. J. M. Blackwood, pastor of the Oak Grove United Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be in Mt. Herman cemetery, near Princeton.

Callahan Services
Funeral services for Anthony S. James Callahan were conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 115 East Moody avenue, with Rev. J. W. Newman and Rev. G. W. Woodrow in charge.

Two appropriate selections were sung during services by Mrs. Stanley Callahan.

Palbearers, all attorneys, were Edward Rea, Gilbert Long, Elder Bryan, Ralph Cooper, R. L. Hildebrand and Charles Young.

Interment was in Oak Park cemetery.

Services for Mr. Callahan were attended in a body by members of the Lawrence County Bar Association.

Hudson Services
Funeral services for George R. Hudson, R. D. 1, Edenburg, were conducted from the Hodge funeral home, East Wallace avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. W. R. Vaughn, pastor of the Edenburg Christian church, in charge.

Active pallbearers were Tom Nelson, Samuel Spencer, Henry Jacobs, James Allen, George Chako and Jack Bob. Honorary pallbearers were Wayne Berkeley and Oscar Altman.

Interment was in Castle View Burial Park.

ALLIED BOMBERS USE TON BOMBS AT RABAU

bombs served to punctuate authoritative statements made Thursday in reply to criticism over why the Japanese had been permitted to secure new bases in New Guinea.

The howl set up by critics concerning Jap landings at Gona and Buna, on the northeast coast of the Papua territory, was answered by a declaration that any force holding these areas left itself open to merciless aerial bombardment.

By attacking Rabaul in force with 2,000-pound missiles, the United Nations fliers gave the pointed demonstration of what the circles close to the high command had in mind.

Fear Threat
Japanese seizure of the island groups of Kei, Aru and Tenimber, in the Korai Sea between New Guinea and Timor to the west, also brought about new fears that the threat to Australia was increasing.

Authoritative sources pointed out that none of these islands was suitable for establishment of air bases. It was pointed out that the presence of the Japanese there was disclosed by reconnaissance even before Tokyo officially announced their occupation and that Kei already has been bombed from the air.

The Allied air successes, however, failed to assuage official concern over the few troops and the small amount of equipment in Australia compared to what really could be provided if an offensive is to be started from the southwest Pacific.

It is also felt that the air forces in Commonwealth bases can stand considerable building up if such raids as yesterday's attack on Rabaul are to be continued with effect.

PASS 'QUIT INDIA' RESOLUTION TODAY

met already had been approved by the party working committee and it was expected that the full committee would approve the motion today.

The vote was postponed from yesterday while party leaders under took to explain to the world their full intentions.

During the course of the addresses the United States, which will be called upon to support with China and Russia to support the congress position, was severely criticized for its attitude regarding the party's stand.

The congress is expected to reach a quick decision on all amendments offered and steam-roller the resolution to unanimous passage. Chief among the amendments to be offered is one by communist groups who want it proclaimed that India will support the United Nations war effort if independence is granted.

Sales Tax?
Despite Vandenberg's belief that the committee will be forced to a sales tax, the committee was reported to be standing two to one against inclusion in the bill. Refusal to adopt a sales tax admittedly would result in the total of the bill falling far under the treasury recommendation of $8,700,000,000.

Business protests against the bill continued to mount, with spokesmen declaring that the stiff corporation normal excess profits taxes would force many concerns out of business.

Elisha M. Friedman, New York, contended that the house provisions would force 40 per cent of the public utility companies of the country to abandon payment of preferred dividends.

Coroner T. RAINBOW BOARD HAS ANNUAL PICNIC

Members of the Advisory Board of New Castle Chapter No. One, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, had their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Covert, of the Youngstown road, Friday evening. Husbands and wives of the members were special guests.

A delicious picnic dinner was served on the spacious lawn of the Covert home, following which a brief business meeting took place, with vice president Howard Erwin presiding in the absence of Mrs. F. F. Urey who is confined to her home by illness.

It was decided to cancel the first regular meeting of the assembly for the fall season, which is scheduled for September 2, the first meeting date being September 16.

Report on the spring dance was given by Mrs. John Templeton, for Miss Dorothy Young, chairman of the dance committee, which showed the dance to have been a most successful event.

Other routine business was transacted, and the succeeding hours were spent informally.

The committee which had charge of the arrangements consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Doerr, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Herman Hess, Mrs. Vennor Bright, Mrs. J. W. McCreary, and Mrs. William Wheldon, with Miss Martha Bigley in charge of the entertainment.

DOUBLE WEDDING IN GARDEN SETTING FRIDAY

A double wedding ceremony took place on Friday, Aug. 7, that is of interest, the principals being Miss Laura Mae Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kauffman, of Landon avenue, New Wilmington, who became the bride of Robert I. McCann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McCann, of 106 North Ray street, and Miss Laura Elizabeth Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayes, also of Landon avenue, New Wilmington, who was united in marriage to George McCurdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCurdy, of 213 Elm street, this city.

The vows were exchanged by the two couples in the presence of friends and relatives, many attending from out of town, at 1:45 o'clock in the afternoon, at a garden ceremony. The yards of the two homes of the brides joining was the place chosen for the arranged improvised altar of fresh flowers, ferns against a trellis entwined with roses and other blossoms of the season. Rev. M. E. Lindstrom, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in New Wilmington, was the officiating minister. He used the single ring service in both instances.

The brides both chose similar dresses of pink crepe, street length, with navy accessories. Their shoulder bouquets were identical, being made up of Tailsman roses.

A reception followed at the Kauffman residence afterwards for a host of guests. Later in the day the couples departed in different directions on a few days honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann made their destination Chattanooga, and they will take up residence in New Castle upon their return. She is a graduate of New Wilmington high in 1938 and attended Westminster college. Mr. McCann, a graduate of New Castle high in 1936, is connected with the Republic Steel in Youngstown, O.

MR. and Mrs. McCurdy, who are taking a trip to Detroit and other points of interest, will make their home in New Wilmington upon returning. Mrs. McCurdy is a graduate of New Wilmington high and Westminster college, with the June class of '42. He is a graduate of New Castle high school and is associated with the Aetna Standard Steel, in Ellwood City.

AUGUST ASSEMBLY FOR EPWORTH CHURCH CIRCLE

An afternoon and evening event was enjoyed by the Allen-Andrews Circle members of Epworth Methodist church Friday, when they were graciously received in the home of Mrs. D. E. McCreary, 806 Oak street, for their August assembly.

President Mrs. J. E. Rodgers conducted the business routine and devotions were in charge of Mrs. C. E. Miller. The program followed, with Mrs. F. W. Mansfield contributing an article on "Christian Mission Must Go On" to the opening feature. Mrs. C. H. Andrews read "Tribute to a Missionary," while Mrs. G. J. Forrest gave a report of the first assembly of the division of Women's Christian Service.

Tapering off activities, the guests numbering 25 were served a delicious prepared full dinner course at tables attractively arranged in the garden flowers added to the colorful setting. Aiding Mrs. McCreary were Mrs. J. E. Rodgers, Mrs. H. Andrews, Mrs. C. E. Jones and Mrs. J. G. Forrest.

Fidelity Companions

Mrs. Joseph Vascetti of Winslow avenue, was hostess to the Fidelity Companions club, Thursday evening.

Tables of 500 were in play, high score prize going to Mrs. James Russo. The club token was captured by Mrs. Michael Phillips.

Dainty refreshments were served at a later hour, Mrs. Dan Cooper assisting the hostess in serving. Special guest was Teresa Vascetti.

Mrs. James Costello, of Scott street, will receive the club on August 20.

Bamboo 500 Club

Two tables of cards were in play at the home of Mrs. Frank Dute, East street, Friday evening, with the Bamboo 500 club composing those competing for honors. Mrs. Norman Shaffer and Mrs. Arnold Fraser were the prize winners. As guests they had Mrs. D. L. Bevan and daughter, Ruth Bevan.

Lunch was served at a suitable hour by the hostess, with Mrs. Robert Coulter aiding the hostess. On August 21 Mrs. Coulter will be hostess to the group at a tea room.

Those on the committee were: J. T. Allen, chairman; Myron Boland, Richard Morgan, Howard Moore, Harry Bradley and J. W. Messner.

RAMSEY-CHESNEY EVENING WEDDING

Amid a setting of ferns, white flowers and white tapers the wedding of Miss Virginia Ramsey and Paul A. Chesney of Decatur, Ga., took place in the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening. Dr. J. J. McIlvaine, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ramsey of 222 North Mulberry street. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Chesney of Siloam Springs, Ark.

A wedding gown of white frosted organza and fingertip-length veil were worn by the bride for the evening ceremony. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and white summer flowers.

As maid of honor she had Miss Betty Cornelius of Lancaster, Pa., who wore pastel blue net and carried an arm bouquet of pink flowers.

Richard Ramsey of Beaver Falls served the groom as best man.

Appropriate wedding music was played by Mary Louise Kirkpatrick, organist. Soloist was Lena May McConnell.

Relatives of the bride were guests at a reception after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. A profusion of flowers furnished decoration for the reception, at which aides were girls who were classmates of the bride at Wheaton college.

Serving as aides were the Misses Lucille Linden of Rockford, Ill.; Eleanor Trusdale of Watertown, Mass.; Ola May Hendrickson of Reading, Pa.; Mary Jage Hendrickson of Harrisburg, Betty Shank of Lancaster, all classmates at Wheaton, and Miss Virginia Altman of New Castle. Out-of-town aides are week-end guests at the Ramsey home.

After a brief week-end wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Chesney will leave on Tuesday for Atlanta, Ga., where they will make their home at 338 Candler road, S. E.

Honored On Birthday

Norma Marie Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jenkins, East Washington street, was pleasantly surprised Thursday afternoon when a number of her playmates gathered in her home to help her celebrate her eighth birthday.

Games and contests entertained the kiddies and prizes were won by Alyce Weir, Barbara Jenkins, Janet Robb and Denise McConnell.

Later a delicious lunch was served at a prettily appointed table with covers arranged for seventeen. Places were marked with dainty baskets and a lighted cake formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Nora Loudon, Norma's grandmother assisted the hostess.

A number of lovely and useful gifts were received by Norma.

Out of town guests were Martha Louise and Nora Mae Loudon of Ellwood City.

Class Has Picnic

Members of Mrs. Ransom Barris' Sunday school class from Mt. Jackson United Presbyterian church gathered in Gaston Park for a picnic Friday evening.

There were 26 in attendance, with mothers of the class members as special guests. A social time was enjoyed after the serving of a delicious tureen supper.

The girls presented Mrs. Barris with a Bible dictionary in appreciation of her years of service and loyalty to the class. The presentation was made by Mrs. Dorothy Kennedy.

Those on the social committee were Miss Sara Thompson and Mrs. Bernice Duff.

1936 F. F. Meeting

Dinner at noon Thursday served at the home of Mrs. Thomas Covert on Maryland avenue, honored Miss Matilda Wirtz, it being her birthday anniversary, with the guest list composing of members of the 1936 F. F. club. The honored one was also remembered with a number of lovely gifts.

Cards filled in the time that ensued, with Mrs. Walter Schweikert, Mrs. Frank Boya and Mrs. James Clare winning the trophies. The door award fell to Mrs. David Yoho.

On August 12, Mrs. Rose Alexander of 624 East Lutton street will receive the club at her home.

The Parent Problem

By Gary C. Myers, Ph. D.

MAKING LIARS OF CHILDREN

Conscientious parents frequently, in their innocence, make liars out of their own children. When that youngster, say of five or six, comes to you with a great tale which you know cannot be possible, and you are shocked by the vividness with which he tells it, you may, in your serious mood, say to him, "That is a lie." You meant to tell him that it could not be possible. But it was possible in the child's imagination.

As a matter of fact, it is a good thing to keep the word "lie" out of a small child's vocabulary until he is seven or eight. In his innocence, he tells us something that really happened in his fancy and which to him was a reality, and we dub that a lie, he begins to think of a lie as a part of his true experience. So far as he is concerned, we then make a lie out of something that had been truth.

The trouble with us older people is that we are so far away from childhood that we cannot see things as children see them, nor understand them in terms of their understanding. The best rule for us is to ask ourselves: "What does this mean to the child? What is his motive back of it? A lie is only a lie when it is intended to be a misrepresentation. Now the small child does not aim to misrepresent. He usually speaks from the fullness of his own experience.

My special bulletin, "Honesty and Truthfulness in Children," may be had by writing me at 235 E. 45th St., New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

Solving Parent Problems
Q. What good inexpensive foods can families get from grist mills?
A. Whole grain flour which is the best sort of cereal and the least expensive. Many farmers can have their own grain made into the very best of cereals there.

Q. Are there good chances for self-improvement for an earnest young man entering the army, navy or air forces?
A. There are tremendous opportunities open to the earnest youth who has resolve and self-discipline. He can grow every day in the skills and knowledge of his particular job. Also he can enter courses right in his outfit or pursue correspondence courses. Those who will travel far and wide can constantly collect facts and ideas from various parts of the world.

LOCAL AMUSEMENTS—"CHRISTENING A NEW STRAW"

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 8:06. Sun rises tomorrow 6:05.

Doing nothing is the worst thing to do now.

There is no one quite so foolish as an educated fool.

It's worth a trip out into the country now to see the high corn. Nothing like it has been seen around here for many years.

DEFINITELY DERISIVE DEFINITIONS

Submission—Any wife's idea of her husband's mission.

Kissing—A conjunction that very often ends in a sentence.

Blush—Obsolete indication of innocence or embarrassment.

The Last Straw—My wife's summer hat.

New Year's Eve—An excuse for kissing friends' wives to the strains of Auld Lang Syne—Instead of kissing, friend wife.

Rhode Island had the first trust—it was a trust in Providence.

Time may be money, but you can't pay a store bill with it.

There are people who still have plenty of nothing.

CURIOUS CYNIC CANTS

Misery loves company, that is why matrimony is more popular than single blessedness.

Our politicians seem to have lost sight of the fact that America was first settled by people who scorned authority.

Life is like a deck of cards: When you are in love it's hearts; when you are engaged it's diamonds; when you are married it's clubs; and when you are dead it's spades.

If you find cigarette burns on the bureau, you are in the guest room.

More often than not, the fellow who is rich in experience is short on cash.

The people who make the best impression are those who don't try to. They just act natural.

Common every day figures may not lie, but figures of speech do.

Wit never killed anyone but many have died from the want of it.

DON'T SHOUT BACK

All quarrelling starts and is maintained by raised voices.

The customer who comes to you for a fight—shouts. If there's no shouting come-back, there can be no fight.

If you control your voice, you control the situation. In fact, a controlled voice puts you in command under all conditions. The self-control it reflects is felt by the auditor.

Don't shout. But learn to speak commandingly without appearing to command.

The Pullman company has only named one car after an individual and that was Lindbergh. The company says it never will name a car after any person again.

It is well enough to be charitable but you should pay your debts first.

Mars is a funny world, but it is funnier than this one it must be a freak.

Mrs. Justwed: "The doctor says I must cook my foods with vitamins and calories in them, but I forgot what foods they are."

Hum: "Oh, make it hash!"

THE CHOICE PART

A shady "financier" went to a thriving town in Iowa, organized a number of stock companies, started a bank deposited all the money of the companies in his own bank, and then promptly went into bankruptcy. A few of the principal losers called on the supposedly insolvent promoter to determine if anything could be salvaged from the wreckage. They found him enjoying the luxuries of a magnificent apartment.

"I regret very much, gentlemen," he mourned, "but I have practically nothing left. My wife owns this house and some business property, but I have nothing. Believe me, if I could do such a thing, I would give you my body and let you divide it among you for there is nothing else I can give."

"What's that proposition?" asked a rather deaf old gentleman who was standing at the back of the room.

"He says that we can take his body and divide it among us," someone replied.

"Wait in that case," said the deaf old gentleman in a loud voice, "I speak for his gall."

An Ohio man was given a life sentence for shooting his father-in-law. That must be a serious offense in Ohio.

Love is like a caterpillar. You would think from the looks of it that it would never have the sense to fly.

CHANGING IT

The church service was proceeding successfully when a woman in the gallery got so interested that she leaned out too far and fell over the railings. Her dress caught in a chandelier. The minister noticed her undignified position and thundered at the congregation.

"Any person who turns round will be struck stone blind."

A man whose curiosity was getting the better of him, turned to his companion and said: "I'm going to risk one eye."

At Butte, Mont., a woman does not have to give her age to get an automobile license. All she has to say is "legal age."

At a local swimming bath this season a record number of husbands have taught their wives to swim. It must be a thrill of telling them to keep their mouths shut.

GETTING THE VIEW

"Your advertisement said that at this hotel there is a beautiful view for miles and miles."

"So there is. Just put your head out of that window and look up."

It seems wrong to take boys from school if we can win without them, but they won't finish their education if the Japs win.

There is one kind of gas that will never be rationed and it doesn't come out of cement or iron tanks.

The admirals say it is not yet necessary to build freight planes. Of course not; when it is necessary, it will be too late.

We pause for a moment to pay tribute, or something, to the man who gets a seat in a bus and then shuts his eyes because he is so tender hearted he hates to see women

Showing the changing trend of the times, the man who used to boast that he was 100 per cent American now feels happy when he gets a note saying he belongs to the 10 per cent bond club.

Once more, all together: Give us thousands of planes big enough to carry freight and troops.

De Gaulle Might Be Ideal War Chief
Suggested For United Nations Head
Leader Must Be Acceptable To Each

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Agreement upon an active commander of the combined forces against the Axis is proving to be a difficult nut for the United Nations' governments to crack.

Of our own individual alignment President Roosevelt is, of course, commander-in-chief. Similarly, each of the other countries in the democratic group has a civilian nominally in military command. This is all right for consideration of broad general policies, diplomatic and economic in their nature. Such managers can get together and unify collective plans. President Roosevelt and Premier Churchill already have done it. A couple of days ago, Foreign Commissar Molotov, representing Comrade Stalin of Russia, has been in on at least one of these confabs.

Washington has fairly been swarmed of late with the spokesmen of New World republics, United Nations affiliates. As for models for governments-in-exile, including kings and queens, the White House lobby has been fairly cluttered with them of late.

But a field commander has got to deal with "spot" situations. Discussion doesn't suit his emergency. He must be the type of guy to holler "Fire!" or "Charge!" on his own responsibility, with no reference to orders from back home. "Field commander" no longer is quite the right expression, either. A field is a "stricken field," as it is to be put by literature; upon the surface of which orthodox soldiers fought, bled and died, with terra firma under them and uninhabited skies overhead.

"Battlefield" Misnomer Now. Now the oceans are included.

A field commander no longer is a general or an admiral; he is both.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

International News Service Staff Writer

After years of trying to pronounce FOC, WPA and OGR we finally have gotten the WAACS and the WAVES.

And it's about time.

Government of the people, by the people and for the people should have at least one pronounceable division.

Our present alphabetical setup sounds like something out of a jumbled type case.

The old lady next door wept when she heard her son was in the NYA.

She said he was a good boy when he left home.

They tried to tell her NYA must be all right—it got a big appropriation.

She said the police department did too but she wouldn't want her boy behind bars.

If they just said he was subsidized it would have answered everything. She thought he'd been bought outright.

Thought for the Day: Oh for the days of the C.O.D. and F.O.B.

The World and the Mud Puddles

LESS DOCTORS AT HOME

Physicians and surgeons are leaving home for the armed services in increasing numbers in response to a heavy recruiting program among medical men under the age of forty-five.

In some localities, doctors available for "normal" civilian service are already few and far between.

Take Imperial County, California, as an example. It is a big county—seventy miles north and south, thirty-eight miles wide and fifty square miles in area, containing six cities widely scattered, with a county population of more than sixty thousand persons, and there will be only ten doctors left in the whole county when those scheduled to leave join those already in the military forces.

In wartime, according to an article in the current Journal of the American Medical Association, the civilian population should have one Doctor for each unit of fifteen hundred civilians. Yet even where this rate cannot be maintained, practical Army and civilian medical authorities say bluntly, and rather cold-bloodedly, persons really in need of medical or surgical attention may be cared for adequately if the public will exercise common sense.

The basic rule may be boiled down to a sentence: Doctors are for sick people. Aunt Daphne, who habitually calls in the family physician for several hours a month to discuss her "symptoms" will have to forego enjoying poor health for the duration. Ladies who trot to doctors' offices to whimper about their "nerves" usually aren't sick; they are, nine times in ten, suffering from nothing that a hard day's work in some useful war activity wouldn't cure. And men who take up Doctor's time over complaints purely or largely imaginary are by no means rare, either, medical experts indicate.

From now on, every good Doctor will have his hands full caring for those who have genuine need of him—on the battle front and on the home front.

Christ did not despair of really wicked men. Does your church seek lost men or just for nice people? The son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.—Luke 19:10.

They are something like circus freaks. I have never yet seen a prodigy that had that joy of life, that sense of humor, that youthful zest that makes kids so charming.

Sometimes I wonder whether overdevelopment of a child's mental powers is testimony to his extraordinary ability or to the parents' extraordinary vanity.

"That's my kid" is a nice thing to be able to say when a surly looking boy sits at the piano and plays a difficult Beethoven symphony, or when he wins a difficult spelling bee.

But I think it's much nicer to admit he's your kid when the police man brings in a frightened little freckle-faced youngster who just batted a baseball through a neighbor's window.

Why crawl a child's head—or an adult's head—with a lot of information that can be found in any reference book?

What do we have encyclopedias for? And dictionaries? And almanacs?

It's good to remember, but sometimes it's better to forget.

And instead of making a walking useless-information-bureau out of yourself why not go out and have some fun?

Have you ever seen an encyclopedia laugh? Neither have I.

Words Of Wisdom
The electric unit, whatever it may be, but certainly infinitely "small," may ultimately win man's fight against his most deadly enemy, the invisible enemy—Arthur Brisbane.

Rev. J. D. Brown At Third Church

REV. JAMES D. BROWN

Rev. James D. Brown, missionary to Rawalpindi, India, will speak Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service in the Third United Presbyterian church, corner of East Washington and Adams streets.

Mr. Brown and his wife are sponsored by the Third church as that church's official missionaries. He is now home on furlough for the first time since the Third church has been his sponsor. He was in India for about six years.

Also present at the Sunday morning service will be Rev. Chester T. R. Yeates of Buffalo, N. Y., former pastor, and Rev. C. R. Thayer, pastor of the Third U. P. church.

To Dedicate Flag At Croton Church
Members of Croton Methodist church will dedicate a service flag Sunday morning, August 9, at 10 o'clock in honor of the boys who have gone from Croton church into the services of our country.

An interesting and appropriate program is being prepared. The flag will be accepted in behalf of the church by James Snow, superintendent of the Sunday school. Patriotic drills and songs will be featured. Dr. Homer B. Davis, the pastor, will speak on "The Relation of the Service Flag to the Stars and Stripes".

A special invitation is being given to all parents who have boys in the service.

TO SPEAK SUNDAY AT APOLLO CHURCH
Rev. William A. Thornton will be guest speaker at Apollo Sunday evening at a service sponsored by the churches of that community. This is a return engagement.

What's What At A Glance

That mightn't be so confusing, but he is an air commander, too. In short, the boss is terrestrial, maritime and aviatorial.

Above him is a miscellaneous commander-in-chief, but it's up to him to make the actual decisions and do it in his time.

So our need is for a terrestrial, maritime and aviatorial tripart.

But that's not all. He must also be a chap who will be acceptable to all the United Nations.

Far be it from them to quarrel, but they naturally have their differences of opinion as to their various relative candidates. Gen. Douglas MacArthur perhaps is our most popular nominee. Britain doesn't oppose him, but it would like a countryman of its own on the job—not on account of outright jealousy. And yet, you can see why.

Well, there's an alternative proposed.

How About De Gaulle? This candidate is Gen. Charles de Gaulle, fighting French warrior, who stood pat against Vichy when it semi-surrendered to the Nazis a few months ago.

Charles de Gaulle has been pretty thoroughly doped out since then. It seems De Gaulle is a thorough competent military. From all accounts, Fuehrer Hitler and Duce Mussolini learned a lot from him while he was young in France, and the democracies hadn't heard of him.

Now, how Charles de Gaulle would do as United Nations "second front" commander (land, sea and air) remains to be seen.

He might prove a fine choice. Little is known about the French patriot. He is said to be an old-fashioned French monarchist, but that's pretty vague.

Here is something specific: Adolf Hitler is represented as having leaked a bit of his program to Charles in pre-war days, and now Charles understands them.

Knowing in advance what has been planned, he should be an extremely useful strategist.

Charles de Gaulle has an opportunity of world proportions, any way. He will become one of the great Frenchmen of all time if under his leadership the Axis is beaten to earth and the shackles stricken from captive France.

County To Send Good Delegation To Convention
The Lawrence County Sabbath School Association is planning to send its usual good delegation to the State Association Convention which is to be held in Uniontown, October 6, 7, 8, 9, and the following word comes from the State Association Headquarters:

The Directors of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association meeting at Camp Kanawake, Spruce Creek, Pa., have approved plans and program for the 80th Annual Sunday School Convention in Uniontown, Pa., October 6, 7, 8, 9, 1942.

A special birthday celebration will feature the meeting. Unusual efforts will be made to have every county in the State well represented.

Among the many who are definitely scheduled to participate are Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Eddowes, song leader and organist at Ocean Grove Assembly; The Rev. Berthold Jackstelt, D. D., of Pittsburgh; The Rev. E. Stanley Jones, D. D., of Indiana; The Rev. Hugh Thomson Kerr, D. D., of Pittsburgh; The Rev. E. Paisley of Philadelphia; The Rev. Fred H. Wilkins, Ph. D., of Clyde Meadows, D. D., of Chambersburg.

Delegates will register through the County Associations and through State Headquarters Office.

Special electric cars will take delegates from Greensburg, on the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad over the West Penn Electric Railway to Uniontown.

Pastors, superintendents, teachers, officers and Sunday school workers may register and attend.

Uniontown has prepared to take care of fifteen hundred delegates. Six churches will use their buildings for the various sessions.

The Great Game Of Politics

The subject is mentioned. The reason can be traced back to the time, just before his 1933 inauguration, when the President prevented a Democratic Senate from passing a sales tax bill by saying that he was "horrified at the idea."

Why was he "horrified"? And why, since that day, have the smaller politicians acted as though the sales tax were the snailpox? The answer is because of the argument that it is a tax upon the poor man instead of the rich. In reality this is not an argument; in reality it is a sheer demagogic appeal. Nevertheless, dread of that cry being raised has kept from a proposal of the sales tax many a member of Congress who privately believes in its desirability and fairness.

If all such could be induced to consider the situation in California as recently presented by the Los Angeles Times, it might alter their fright. It might even alter the attitude of the Senate Finance Committee which is now making inadequate changes in the grossly inadequate House bill.

AFTER STATING THAT the three per cent tax, in force a number of years in California, had netted the State last year the record-breaking total of $131,354,212, the Times editorial says of it: "The people realize that it has lifted the State from what looked like hopeless insolvency to relative affluence, with no more pain to anyone

Ask Industries To Help Solve Transportation

Greater New Castle Association Urges Plants To Form Car Riding Clubs

The Greater New Castle association today has asked all industries here to co-operate in a proposed district-wide survey designed to help answer "the fast approaching, serious problem of transporting employees to and from their home and place of business."

Letters went out to all plants, informing officials of the preliminary studies and test surveys made by the New Castle war transportation committee, established to assist City Transportation Administrator Thomas C. Moore in finding the best solution to the transportation problem facing war workers.

Copies of releases proclaiming the government's action relative to the tire shortage, and a suggested "organized transportation plan," recommended by tire rationing officials, were enclosed in the letter.

Survey Scheduled Soon

All plants will soon receive the letter announcing, a questionnaire to be filled out by all employees in regard to their individual travel problem.

The letter urged plant heads to begin encouraging the formation of car riding clubs among employees even before the questionnaire arrives.

The letter recommended that company transportation committees be formed in all plants as soon as possible.

July Weather Almost Normal

Only Slight Variation From Normal Weather Condi- tions Shown

Maybe you thought it was too hot last month, or that there was too much rainfall, but the figures of B. G. Johnson, U. S. Weather Observer here, reveal that conditions were almost normal. There was just one degree difference in the mean temperature, and only .76 inches of rainfall over the regular amount, just the amount of a good summer rainstorm.

The mean maximum temperature was 86.3 degrees, the mean minimum, 60.6 degrees, and the mean average, 73.5 degrees. The normal for July is 72.5 degrees. The highest temperature was 97 degrees on the 17th, and the lowest was 48 degrees on the 3rd.

The total precipitation for the month was 4.42 inches which is .76 inches over the normal. The greatest in 24 hours was .72 inches on the 22nd. Days with .01 inches or more of precipitation were 16, days clear, 13; partly cloudy, 16; cloudy, 2.

Last year, in July, the temperature was 1.9 degrees over the normal, and the precipitation was 3.32 inches over the normal. The highest temperature was 99 degrees and the lowest 47 degrees.

Minor Offenders Given Hearing

City OCD Trial Board Hears Testimony, Discharges Eight Persons

Eight persons who reportedly committed minor infractions during the recent black-out were given hearings before the city OCD trial board, in council chambers, City Hall last night, and discharged.

Director D. O. Davies pointed out that every person who violates OCD regulations will be charged with the offense, and that the time for not enforcing the law, which permits fines and sentences, has passed.

Some of the more serious offenders were charged with the offense before local aldermen and fined. Those who were heard last night committed minor acts which they said were not intentional.

Realize Neat Sum From Show

Boxing, Bomb Show Committee Reports $1,239.74 Profit Earned

PLAN TO PURCHASE DEFENSE EQUIPMENT

City OGD boxing and bomb show staged recently at Taggart stadium was a financial success according to a communication forwarded by Fred C. Duff, treasurer of the committee which handled the affair to William J. Connery, chairman. Twelve hundred and thirty-nine dollars and seventy-four cents was realized and will be expended by the committee for equipment.

The sale of tickets amounted to $2,126.90 and the expenses of the spectacle were $887.16. The latter includes the cost of six war bonds presented to state and federal government, printing of tickets, telephone and telegraph accounts and material of the miniature air raid.

According to the committee which was composed of representatives of all ex-service men's organizations, the firemen, both paid and volunteer and OGD groups the spectacle was not only well handled but proved most entertaining and the fact that such a nice net sum was realized was very gratifying.

The committee will meet within the near future and determine how the money can be best expended for the protection of all of the people of the city because it was through their purchase of tickets and attendance at the boxing show and bomb display that it was such a success.

Treasurer Duff reported to Chairman Connery that the money has been deposited in the Peoples bank.

Fagan Charges Crooked Voting

UMW District 5 President Alleges Ballot Box Stuffing in Union Election

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—Patrick T. Fagan, United Mine Workers district No. 5 president, today charged that wholesale corruption marked the election of Joseph Yablonski, of California, Pa., to the international board of the U. M. W.

Fagan, militant supporter of Philip Murray, CIO president and former U. M. W. vice president, also took issue with a statement from Washington headquarters of the union which stated that Yablonski had the backing of John L. Lewis, while his opponent, John Zaradnik, was supported by Murray's friends.

The vote was 14,466 for Yablonski and 7,080 for Zaradnik.

Fagan said that "nothing could be farther from the truth" than a statement from Washington crediting the election as a triumph for Lewis over Murray.

Fagan charged that votes were purchased, ballot boxes were stuffed, watchers and tellers threatened, and "this was done by men who posed as representatives of the Lewis organization."

Fagan said that "nothing could be farther from the truth" than a statement from Washington crediting the election as a triumph for Lewis over Murray.

Wagner Favors License Refund

Would Make Pro-Rata Refunds To Auto Owners Entering Service

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Aug. 8.—State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner today favored pro-rata refunds for automobile owners who are members of the nation's armed forces.

Wagner, a member of the state board finance and revenue, said the board consistently had avoided such a policy in the past.

"Although I am aware of the fact that in the past it has been the uniform policy of the board to refuse the granting of such refunds," Wagner said, "I feel, nevertheless, that the circumstances under which many of the requests are now being made requires modification of the present policy."

He added that "the fact that the General Assembly in the last session considered it to be of sufficient importance to introduce legislation that would have brought about this result, but adjourned before it was accomplished, the board of finance and revenue should relax its present ruling and permit these refunds to be made."

Fuller Warns That Inflation Is Now 'Creeping Enemy'

(International News Service)
CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Walter D. Fuller, chairman of the board of the National Association of Manufacturers, today believes America still can win the war but can be defeated by inflation.

"Inflation is as much our enemy as Hitler or Hirohito," he told a Chautauqua Institute Assembly audience yesterday. "It is an unseen enemy that creeps up on us. And it is creeping now."

"There isn't a housewife in the nation who needs to be told that inflation has crept into her market basket. She can see it in the price of anything she buys."

So far the city has not yet obtained a siren to sound, either a practice or real air raid alarm. There is no questioning that when sirens are bought they should be of sufficient strength to be plainly heard all over the city.

When OGD wardens and auxiliary police are on duty their orders must be obeyed. If the public believes in justice has been done anyone, they can carry the complaint to the city director or chief warden.

It was gratifying to hear Russell Melvin, head of the auxiliary police organization report yesterday that it will not be used for political purposes. He believes such an organization will bind the men together more closely and from time to time social event will be held.

Frank Sargent, chief air raid warden today reported that new air raid warden classes will commence soon in all sections of the city. He believes that as many persons as possible should take instructions. He can be interviewed in room 212, city hall, or via telephone 6586.

It was stated today by Russell Melvin, president of the city OGD auxiliary police that each ward is expected to provide its own auxiliary police. He said it would seem strange if a ward which hasn't supplied sufficient auxiliary police, asked for officers from other districts to be sent to such sections.

Persons who have yet not qualified as air raid wardens and others who are in the "lost time" class can attend classes whenever possible and receive credit for the time. This same rule is applicable to auxiliary policemen.

Frank Sargent, chief air raid warden today reported that new air raid warden classes will commence soon in all sections of the city. He believes that as many persons as possible should take instructions. He can be interviewed in room 212, city hall, or via telephone 6586.

It was stated today by Russell Melvin, president of the city OGD auxiliary police that each ward is expected to provide its own auxiliary police. He said it would seem strange if a ward which hasn't supplied sufficient auxiliary police, asked for officers from other districts to be sent to such sections.

Persons who have yet not qualified as air raid wardens and others who are in the "lost time" class can attend classes whenever possible and receive credit for the time. This same rule is applicable to auxiliary policemen.

So far the city has not yet obtained a siren to sound, either a practice or real air raid alarm. There is no questioning that when sirens are bought they should be of sufficient strength to be plainly heard all over the city.

When OGD wardens and auxiliary police are on duty their orders must be obeyed. If the public believes in justice has been done anyone, they can carry the complaint to the city director or chief warden.

It was gratifying to hear Russell Melvin, head of the auxiliary police organization report yesterday that it will not be used for political purposes. He believes such an organization will bind the men together more closely and from time to time social event will be held.

WPA Sewing Machines Will Speed War Work

Machines Turned Over To Red Cross For War Work Production

COUNTY TO GET 100 MACHINES

Mrs. John E. Elliott, chairman of all volunteer service of the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross, has just completed arrangements by which all sewing machines used in Lawrence county for the WPA sewing project have been turned over by the government to the Lawrence county chapter for their use in the program they are carrying out in their war relief and army and navy relief program.

With the approval of the government, the chapter has now many machines ready for the auxiliaries scattered throughout the county, and for all units working in New Castle.

Mrs. Harold Wharton, production chairman, is trying to contact each auxiliary, but as there are hundreds in Lawrence county, this contact may be slow and therefore she requests all chairmen of the units to contact the chapter office, requesting the number of machines they can use throughout the fall and winter months.

"Four thousand women and more throughout the chapter jurisdiction are doing some type of volunteer work, out it will be necessary, if we are to meet the demands placed upon our organization by the military authorities, to have these already active volunteers increase their working hours, and those who have not taken up some type of production work to give, and give freely, of their time. I hope to be able to report a definite increase in the chapter's volunteer services in our first meeting of the board opening our fall program in the early part of September," Mrs. Elliott stated.

All women desiring to knit, sew, crochet string mitts, or make surgical dressings, may contact the chapter office for information.

Follows Students Into Service

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—P. H. Carlson, principal of Wilkinsburg high school for the past 14 years, followed his students into the army today. He said he had enlisted in the service "because so many of my boys are there." Carlson left last night for Miami, Fla., where he will undergo training as a captain in the technical division of the army air force.

AID NEGROES

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—Four Negro families who were stoned from their temporary home in the Lawrenceville section early yesterday, were re-located today by officials of the Pittsburgh housing authority.

The colored families, two of whose heads are defense workers, were forced to abandon their original homes by a defense demolition project, and then taken temporary shelter in a dilapidated structure nearby. Thursday night, police said, a mob of 100 persons stoned the house so vigorously that the residents—20 Negroes, including a mother and her two weeks-old baby—had to be moved to the police station to safety.

Some Good News On Production

International News Service
MORE TANKS—William C. Dickerman, chairman of the board of American locomotive company announced that his firm is becoming the largest builder of tanks in the U. S. and Canada. His factory, he says, is turning out some "censored" surprises for Hitler and Hirohito.

MORE STEEL—A $20,000,000 Great Lakes improvement project, including provision of ice-breakers capable of shattering ice up to a thickness of nine feet is believed to guarantee year-round shipment of iron ore from the Great Lakes region by water.

MORE ALCOHOL—Whiskey distilleries are rapidly being converted to production of alcohol for the war effort.

STILL MORE STEEL—The nation's steel producing capacity has been increased by 8,000,000 tons this year—more than the total amount of steel which can be produced in Japan.

MORE WAR FUNDS—Total appropriations for the war effort between June 1, 1940 and June 30, 1943 will aggregate $205,514,657,289 it was announced in congress.

MORE COPPER—Ebasco Service, Inc., subsidiary of the Electric Bond and Share company has developed a new wire for carrying electricity, which is made of fine steel strands woven together. In addition to great strength, the new steel wire will benefit the war effort in releasing large quantities of copper for war production.

MORE TRANSPORTATION—Critically needed war materials are moving faster from factory to points where they are needed. Freight car loadings this week are increased by more than 8,000 cars over last week. Total cars loaded this week are 863,528.

MORE MAGNESITE—The Warner Company, of Philadelphia, announced that the defense plant corporation is building a new plant which the company will use in producing magnesite under its newly discovered process.

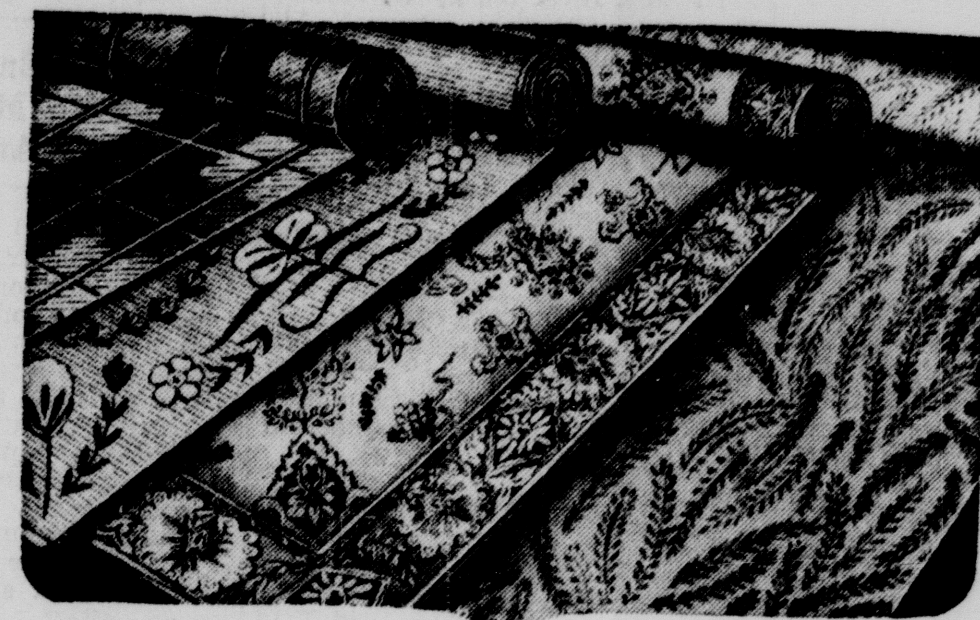

GRADUATE OFFICERS

"Mother May I Go Out To Swim?"

(International News Service)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 8.—Girls under 18 years of age today were ordered to keep away from Atlantic City's boardwalk and municipal auditorium after dark unless accompanied by responsible adults.

The order, issued by the public safety director, will be enforced jointly by police, military guards and the coast patrol. Uncle Sam has taken over many of the hotels in this resort to quarter trainees in the armed services.

We have no faith in that secret weapon story. The weapon might be possible, but not the secret.

"What an intelligent letter!" says the public man, meaning that somebody has bragged on him.

The NEW CASTLE TRADES and LABOR ASSEMBLY...

ENDORSES THE MOVEMENT OF THE CITY FIREFIGHTERS FOR A 10% INCREASE IN PAY BECAUSE OF THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

- (1) The higher cost of living, higher rents, etc.
- (2) They have only received a 3% increase in the past 12 years.
- (3) In addition they must buy all their own uniforms and personal equipment, such as boots, bunker pants and coats and helmets.
- (4) They are still underpaid in comparison to other cities of the same size population.

We also endorse the request of other groups of city employees for a 10% increase. (Signed)

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The New York Giants were chugging along only one game back of Cincinnati today in the battle for third place in the National League. They were enjoying the lofty spot, for them—at the beginning of the season the Giants were strictly second division on paper—because of a man long known to you readers.

Old Carl Hubbell, to be exact, Old Carl, the Giants' maul ticket, had done it again. He pitched the Ottomans to a well deserved 6 to 4 victory over Philadelphia last night and at the same time scored his sixth straight win and seventh of the season.

Glossop-Livingston Homer
Tom Livingston and Albie Glossop did their best to spoil Hub's evening. Each blasted a home run. But Carl's mates refused to let him down, although he was driven to cover in the ninth after Danny Murtaugh had doubled and Glossop had committed his churlish act of hitting for the circuit.

Billy Jurges poked out four of the Giants' 14 hits and Buster Maynard came through with three bingles. Slender Al Javery hurled the Boston Braves to a 2 to 1 eleven-inning victory over the league leading Brooklyn Dodgers. Nanny Fernandez tripled in the final inning and scored on Pee Wee Reese's error on Max West's grounder after the smish had been deflected by Hugh Casey with two out in the eleventh.

Casey took over for Curt Davis in the eighth, after Davis had hurled five-hit ball to that point. However, the Dodgers' remained nine games ahead of the Cardinals were routed, 13 to 6, in an arc-light contest by the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Buccaneers blasted 16 hits off the combined offerings of Lanier, Bumbert, Dickson and Pollet.

Haven't Given Up
After the debacle, Manager Billy Southworth of the Cardinals, as usual, said his team had not given up hope of catching the Dodgers. This statement has been reiterated by Southworth so often that Brooklyn fans are beginning to believe Billy talks off a recorded record.

The scheduled night game between Chicago and Cincinnati was postponed because of weather. In a night game at St. Louis, the Detroit Tigers were nosed out by the Browns in a 3 to 2 score. Technically, however, the game went to the Browns when Vernon Stephens sneaked home as Rudy York slipped and fell trying to retrieve a slow roller hit by Mike Chartak.

Games between Boston and Washington and Cleveland and Chicago in the American League were postponed. HOLD JOINT HONORS
(International News Service)
YORKLYN, Del., Aug. 8.—Al Mullhaupt, Jr., of Bradford, Pa., and Andrew C. Long, of Shamokin, Pa., state doubles champions, today held joint high gun honors in the Auburn special 150 single target shoot at Yorklyn.

Mullhaupt and Long both scored 149 in a field of 108 marksmen. The Shamokin gunner missed his 120th bird, while Mullhaupt dropped his 98th rock. Both were class A men.

Bits of most everything:—

Up to yesterday, I thought that every baseball addict in the hinterlands had conceded the National League ribbon to Brooklyn. Alderman B. J. Biondi, a New York Giant roofer ever seen, he first put his lips to a trumpet, still hasn't given up and he munches no words in saying so...

While Joe Noecker, a dyed-in-the-wool Yankee roofer listened attentively, the south side 'squire' went on to say that "bigger leads than 9's or 10 games have been blown before. Anything can happen in baseball. Mel Ott has built something out of nothing. He'll give 'em all a fight up to the wire..."

Croton and the Elder A. C. are square—in one respect. Earlier this season, Dory Gunnett flipped a no-hit no-run game against Croton. Andy Sugant pinned on the Elders Thursday, the difference being that the Elders won while Croton had to be satisfied with a 0-0 tie...

City Baseball Loop Awaits Sunday Tiffs

Moose-Elder Game Is Postponed; Ellwood To Invade West Pittsburgh

City baseball league foes near the midway mark in their bruising second half title chase Sunday. With the Moose-Elders game postponed, local diamond addicts will have their pick of three setos which should produce an abundance of action.

Ellwood City visits West Pittsburgh on West Pittsburgh field; Bessemer journeys to Cascade field to clash with the Croton A. C. and the Lawrence Indies and Slovaks swing on the new Mahoning field.

All games start promptly at 3 o'clock. Manager "Fiz" Rodenbaugh canceled the Moose-Elder fray due to Sunday's Moose outing. The Moose leads the race with seven wins against two losses. The Elders are lodged in second place with four triumphs against three setbacks.

The West Pittsburghers can gain a half game on the first two clubs by smashing down the rugged Ellwoodians. The out of city rivals can run their second half total to five and five by topping the "Gashouse Gang."

Two of the most bitter athletic rivals in town, the Slovaks and Lawrence Indies figure to put on the most exciting battle. The Slovaks are deadlocked with West Pittsburgh for third place honors while the Indies lifted themselves out of the cellar by batting down the Ellwoodians and West Pittsburgh. Fans are asked to note that the game will be played on the new Mahoning field, located on what formerly was known as the Standard Steel Car site.

Bessemer's visit to Croton completes an imposing schedule. Bessemer is buried in last place and aims to quit the post by blasting the Crotonites who are a half game ahead of the "Cementers."

JOCKEY RIENZI COPS 4 OUT OF 5

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 8.—Little Joe Rienzi, swarthy Brooklyn jockey, today boasted a total of 16 triumphs at Garden State Park after winning four out of five races yesterday.

Rienzi rode to victory in the third, fifth, sixth and seventh events on Joanny, Rocky Craig, Bill's Sister and Sting Pal respectively. Darrell Clingman is the leading rider at Camden with 22 wins.

Geo. Richards, 16 To Face Greenberg In Tennis Battle

(International News Service)
RYE, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Sixteen-year-old George Richards of Montebello, Calif., will face Seymour Greenberg of Chicago today in the semi-final round of the Eastern grass court tennis championship with the winner to meet Ted Schroeder, national intercollegiate champion in the finals on Sunday.

Pauline Betz, Winter Haven, Fla., clashes with Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., today in the finals of the women's division. Richards, a southpaw, played inspired tennis yesterday to eliminate Sidney Wood, New York veteran and former Wimbledon champion. The tenacious youngster fired flaming undercuts by the ailing Wood, who underwent a minor operation on Thursday, to gain a 6-4, 6-1 victory.

Schroeder, who lives in Glendale, Calif., and ranks fourth in national rating besides holding the national intercollegiate title, churned up too much sharp shooting tennis for Billy Talbert of Cincinnati, in reaching the final round. Schroeder, utilizing speed and tricky play easily won in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4. Greenberg reached the semi-final round with a 6-2, 6-2 decision over Victor Selkass of Philadelphia.

N. Y. A. Slaughters Capitola Team, 11-4

In one of the most thrilling games ever played on N. Y. A. field, the N. Y. A. team slapped an 11-4 city softball league defeat on the Capitolas.

The winners found the offerings of "Fl" Augustine and "Slippery" Lee Gairdo easy to take, driving both moundsman off the hill. Desimone, the winning twirler, yielded five hits.

Desimone, Burns, Veres and Barbus starred for alphabetic team.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Sportsman officials, fish wardens, and other interested sportsmen from the nine counties of the Northwest Division met in Tidouise for the purpose of selecting some certain stream to be set aside for fly casting only. The average bait fisherman will likely rare up on his hind legs at such a proposal until he discovers that it will actually be more to his benefit than the name indicates. They will want to know in what manner can they realize any benefit from a stream that they are not permitted to fish. The answer is simply that only 5 or 6 miles in the middle of the stream will be closed to bait fishing, with both upper and lower sections open, and special heavy stocking of the project will serve as a source of supply for the open sections. In other words, this restricted area will serve in the same capacity to the fishermen, as does a game refuge insure a reserve game for hunters, according to Seth Myers, in the Sharon Herald.

In other sections of the state there are several of these special flycasting projects and the sportsmen have come to realize their value, and appreciate the fish commission setting them up. Many of the best trout streams in Northwest Pennsylvania were recommended by those present at the meeting who were well acquainted with them. After all had been discussed thoroughly and a vote was taken, the one selected as the first choice was Caldwell creek. It is probably the best located of any and has wonderful possibilities for the improvement which will be taken up immediately with the state fish commission. East Hickory was chosen as second choice and it too, has splendid possibilities and perhaps is better known than Caldwell.

An official representative will be sent out from the Harrisburg office to check over the two streams and report on certain wrinkles which the committee met over. If approval is given by the fish commission, and the landowners along both sides of the stream give their O. K. the project will be under way early next year. We have learned that those fishermen living near other such projects have become more and more interested in artificial bait casting and it is certain to improve the sport in this section. We may see the time when bait fishing will need to be outlawed in Pennsylvania if the number of fishermen continues to grow because the natural food supply for fish is what most people use for bait.

Billy Shelton, lightweight from Pittsburgh, evened the score with Baby Leasner, New Castle sharpshooter, at the Farrell Athletic club several nights ago, but the fans weren't convinced of it and they were not timid about expressing their vigorous disapproval of the split decision. In another bout Jimmy Baker, Farrell, stopped Dean Cumberland of this city in the second round. It was a good fight up to the time Cumberland was stopped. Bruno Pishoner of Ellwood City mauled Walt Reno of Hickory.

George Richards, nine, East Washington street, is on the road to being an outdoor fan. He likes to take his dog, which according to reports from one of our spies in the Cascade Park section is one of that kind which stands seven feet high, and eats everything from steak to bread, out along the Slippery Rock. Yesterday George took his dog, "Cookie" (probably named because he likes ginger-bread and oatmeal cakes), his fishing rod and some crab tails to the Slippery Rock. He hadn't been seated on the embankment very long until there was a jerk and away the line spun off the reel. Sensing that something was running away with his line, he yanked and what did he have? You guess. Yes folks, a sun-fish, and then being on edge for a big bass, he tossed the hook with another crab tail into the stream and within a few minutes out came another sun-fish. Of course he had only two crab tails left there wouldn't be any more sun-fish in the creek today. But the moral is this: George is on the road to becoming an enthusiastic devotee of the Isaac Walton club. Here's luck to him in future fishing expeditions.

Mrs. Freda Nolan of this city will defend her Kane Country club golf championship Tuesday at Kane. Frank Ross, former boxer and baseball umpire, has made two donations of blood to the Red Cross in Pittsburgh. According to reports today Johnny Como, Meadville midweight, hurt one of his hands, causing a postponement of his bout with Russ Baxter at Pittsburgh, Monday.

Canadian Selective Service regulations will not prevent operation of the National Hockey league in Canada this winter, according to the Ottawa Journal. Andy Brannigan, defense man with the Brooklyn Americans in the league, has enlisted as a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force. Alas, 1941 juvenile champion may race today in the $7,500 added Sheridan handicapped at Washington park, Chicago, and Pickett will run in the Merchants and Citizens handicap at Saratoga. Weatherite won the Elks purse at Fargo, Cumberland, yesterday.

DRAFT LOSS BIG
Louisville lost 12 men to the armed services, Indianapolis in the same league lost but one player.

FAIR OR FOUL By LAWTON CARVER INS Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—One of the greatest contributions to the war effort that the major leagues could possibly make would be to utilize world series players for post-season games through the south, southwest and far west. This would necessitate that they kick over some baseball law, but that would be all right, too. There is a war on.

When the club-owners meet with Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis and the league officials to make plans for the world series they should adopt a program that will provide for the world series winner to go on the road for, say, a half dozen games to raise money. They might even get a little further and send a team abroad to several points to show our soldiers that baseball is behind them all the way—even to travelling as far away from home as they do. That's not so far to go, when you know you're coming back.

Shouldn't Sit Back
Most of the world series proceeds will go to service benefit funds and that is as it should be. But baseball can hardly sit back on that and the benefit games of this season and put itself on the back for a great and magnanimous gesture. Any baseball player in uniform who is not eligible for the fighting front should be included in a program of fund-raising games after the season is over, and if they will start making plans immediately this thing can be done with a minimum of confusion and a maximum of results.

Returns To Competition In Hinsdale Handicap At Washington Park

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Alsab, kept from the races for months by a blind splint and lack of training, was scheduled to return to competition today in the $2,500 Hinsdale handicap at Washington Park.

The three-year-old colt was eligible also for the richer $7,500 Sheridan handicap at a mile and an eighth, but trainer Sarge Swenke picked the six-furlong event as a better tune-up test to start his campaign for the American derby at Washington Park, August 29.

Tom Falkenberg In Tennis Finals

(International News Service)
CULVER, Ind., Aug. 8.—Of the all-California quartet which went into the national junior tennis semifinals, Tom Falkenberg, elder member of the sensational Tom-and-Bob Falkenberg brother duo, and Edward "Budge" Patty, defending champion, were left today to fight it out for the title.

Tom Falkenberg got into the finals by scoring a stunning 9-7, 8-6 upset over brother Bob in yesterday's play.

Patty wasted little time in disposing of Arthur MacDonald of San Gabriel, Cal., 6-3, 6-2.

College All-Stars Open Drills Today

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—The finest football talent drawn from 1941 collegiate squads of the country today opened drills at Northwestern university in preparation for the All-Star college clash August 28 with the Chicago Bears, professional champions.

The Bears, meanwhile, left for their training camp at St. John's Military academy, Delafield, Wis. The squads will meet under the lights in Soldier Field in the ninth annual charity game featuring picked college stars and professional champions.

Profits will go to the Army and Navy relief funds.

Wampum Downs Dewey A. C. Nine

A 2-1 City-County Independent Baseball league setback Friday.

Coy Craine blasted a homer, two triples and a single for the winners. His three-base blow in the seventh settled the issue.

Score by innings:
Dewey 100 000 0—1 4 3
Wampum 600 000 1—2 9 0
Batteries: Deweys: J. Adams and G. Adams; Wampum: B. Bardman and Mills.
Umpires: D. Braatz and E. Koch.

CRACK BASE STEALER
Babe Barna, Giant outfielder, stole 29 bases for Minneapolis last season, but has had few tries this year.

I'm pretty sure that the world series winner would raise a worthwhile chunk of cash in a tour of Atlanta, Nashville, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Francisco, Los Angeles and a couple of other points.

Let the world series winner play against the championship club of the sectional circuits, or play an all-star team.

A gent named Vince La Barbera of Boston comes forward with the suggestion that major leaguers who make their home in the west play a western team, those in the south play a southern team and so on.

Great Deed
No matter how it is done, baseball can spend the month of October doing a great deed for the war cause and one month of activity on the part of the major leaguers free of charge—with expenses paid—is not too much to ask.

There is no very good reason why they shouldn't be sent abroad to play exhibitions, either Winston Churchill comes to the United States whenever he deems it necessary and, putting it another way, American soldiers go abroad to fight and not to play baseball and not knowing whether they will come back.

Baseball has a great chance right now, and henceforward to do more for the war effort than any other sport. That happens to be baseball's peculiar position, and baseball shouldn't miff this one.

Legion Ready For Crucial Contest

Elimination Series Opens In Sharon Sunday Afternoon

New Castle's entry in the little world series of the American Legion will play its first contest tomorrow afternoon when the strong team representing the Sharon American Legion post will be the opposition at Sharon. Chairman Earl Moffatt announced today.

The locals got in some good practice ticks Thursday evening at Dean Park, when they played a pickup team in a warmup contest, winning by the score of 15-5.

The local team was picked after the American Legion Junior league had played its first half, and the boys composing the team were picked from among entries submitted by the managers of all teams.

Anyone interested in transporting some of the team to Sharon for tomorrow's game is asked to be at the American Legion home on North Jefferson street at 12 o'clock. The contest starts at 2:30 o'clock in Sharon.

Pair Fires 135 In First 36 Holes; Ben Hogan Cools Off, Shoots 71

(International News Service)
TORONTO, Aug. 8.—Craig Wood, United States open champion, and Ralph Guldahl, a former open titlist in Uncle Sam's backyard, teed off today in a par-busting deadlock as the Canadian open championship moved into the final 36 holes of play.

Wood, who said he was "playing in the groove", and Guldahl covered the first 36 holes in 135 nine under par for the Mississauga course. Each sharpshooter fired a 66 on the opening round and followed with 69s.

Ben Hogan, who set the gallery tittering with a slashing, record-breaking 65 for the first 18 holes of play, cooled off to 71 to take second place one strike back of the leaders. The wasp-waist little Texan remained a favorite with the fans to win the tournament that probably will be the last major golfing event for the duration of the war.

A. A. U. Swimming Meet Begins Friday

Hawaiian Speedster, Wearing Ohio State Colors, Wins Acclaim

(International News Service)
NEW LONDON, Conn., Aug. 8.—Leo Nakama, Hawaiian speedster representing Ohio State University, today held the acclaim of the swimming world for his world-record performance in winning the one mile free style event as the national A. U. championships got under way.

The three-day meet, which opened last night at Ocean Beach Park, saw Nakama, the defending titleholder, double-lap the field to finish in 20 minutes and 29 seconds ahead of Jack Ryan, Ohio State, and Daniel Green, of Texas A. and M.

Another champion to retain his crown was Bill Smith, of Hawaii's Alexander community house. He took a thrilling race from Allan Ford, of Yale, in the 220 yard free style in 2:10.7, a new American record. Michael Priano, of Brooklyn was third.

The three diving event of the meet, the sole meter springboard, was captured by Sammy Lee, the Korean, representing occidental college. Lee amassed a total of 155.84 points, while the second place taker, Miller Anderson, Ohio State total

Trend Listless

Most Stocks Hold Within Narrow Limits; Handful Issues Change

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Stock market continued its listless trend today, with most stocks holding within extremely narrow limits.

Many leaders failed to sell and scores held around last night's closing quotations. A handful of special issues showed notable changes, including Union Carbide, which was up 1/4 to 67 1/2 at the opening.

Bonds were firm and quiet. A few speculative rails registered fractional gains. U. S. Government bonds moved narrowly.

U. S. Steel eased 3/4 to 46 1/2 and other steel shares were inclined to lag. General Motors was unchanged, but Chrysler gave up a fraction.

Modest gains were chalked up by Air Reduction, International Nickel, Standard Oil of N. D., American Can, Eastman Kodak and National Distillers. The last-named reached a new 1942 high of 24 1/4.

Minus signs were shown by Du Pont, American Telephone, Anaconda, Santa Fe, Sears Roebuck, U. S. Rubber and United Aircraft.

Miss Loretta Pastin Weds William Pagani

Ceremony Performed This Morning At St. Agatha Church By Rev. R. D. Wilkey

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 8.—A lovely wedding was solemnized at 9 o'clock this morning at the St. Agatha Catholic church, Fifth street, uniting in marriage Miss Loretta Pastin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Pastin, Line avenue, and William Pagani, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pagani, Beaver Falls.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. D. Wilkey in the presence of many relatives and friends. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. William Brophy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was most attractive in an all-white ensemble and wore an orchid corsage. Her dress was white silk trimmed with satin. She carried a pair of rosary beads.

Her sister, Miss Marie Pastin, was maid of honor, and she wore a becoming street-length magnolia shade with satin trim and her flowers were yellow tea roses.

Corp. Technician Joseph Pastin of Camp Lee, Va., brother of the bride, was the best man.

A wedding dinner for the immediate families followed at the bride's home, featuring a large wedding cake and bridal appointments.

Following a wedding trip, they will reside at Beaver Falls where the bridegroom is employed by the Babcock & Wilcox company. The bride is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '37 and has been employed at the Endicott-Johnson Shoe company at Beaver Falls. Mr. Pagani graduated from Beaver Falls high school with the class of '37.

Two More Saved In Boat Tragedy

(International News Service)
BAY CITY, Mich., Aug. 8.—The saga of Saginaw Bay's greatest tragedy came to an end Friday with nine persons dead and four recovering from the effects of long hours in the choppy waters.

Two more survivors of the party of 13 who were thrown into the lake Sunday when the 30-foot fishing boat Ariene struck a rock and sank were found late yesterday on a tiny island, nearly 20 miles from where their boat was wrecked.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sauve, parents of a three-year-old child who was not on the trip. The other two survivors were Abraham Labeau, 32, who floated in a life-jacket for 75 hours before being rescued, and Mrs. Dorothy Repkie, 23, who swam seven miles to shore and safety.

Among the victims were Labeau's wife and Mrs. Repkie's husband. The Sauves said they spent more than 48 hours afloat on life belts and pieces of the wrecked boat before finding sanctuary on the island. Later they moved to another island and their distress signal was seen by a coast guard boat.

Bob Higgins Wants To Serve Again

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—Robert A. (Bob) Higgins, head football coach at the Pennsylvania State college, has offered his services to the United States Army, it was disclosed today.

Higgins, in Pittsburgh to conduct the annual convention of the Eightieth division of which he was a captain during World War I, said that he hopes by the time another football season rolls around that he'll be "doing something really worth while."

Fulfillment of Higgins' ambition to get back into uniform may keep him from seeing in action this fall the greatest football player he has had under his direction at Penn State.

The player whom Higgins rates as the greatest prospect he has ever seen is Dave Alston, Negro halfback from Midland, Pa.

The current crop of Argentina is estimated at 362 million bushels, according to the Department of Commerce.

Trinity Church Picnic Wednesday

Charles Lyle Chairman Of 1942 Picnic Outing; Y. W. C. A. Camp Is Place Chosen

Annual picnic outing for members of Trinity Episcopal church, is planned for Wednesday, August 12, at the Y. W. C. A. Camp site, at Lakewood. Cars will be leaving the church from 1 o'clock on for those not having any means of transportation. An afternoon program for all ages has been planned and dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Charles Lyle, general chairman, and his committee ask that cards being mailed to the various members, as a medium of getting a check-up on the number of reservations of those planning to attend, be returned at once, to enable them to know the number to prepare for.

Dankert was picked up near Ligonier yesterday as he stood along the William Penn highway trying to thumb a ride east. He disappeared Wednesday night, while a score of guests sat around in a downtown hotel waiting for him to appear and pay for a midnight supper that he had ordered for them.

Governor's Man In Conferences Here

Clinton Stark of Harrisburg, representing the Governor's Highway Traffic Advisory Committee to the War Department, yesterday conferred with the industrial subcommittee of the War Transportation Committee relative to the transportation of employees of defense plants and the approaching tire shortage.

Stark also met with Robert A. Eckles, new executive director of the Lawrence County War Price and Rationing board, who told him that the quota of new tires for Lawrence had been exhausted July 31.

If this schedule is maintained, the backlog demand for new tires would be increasing month by month so that in a few months it would be impossible to meet the demand for new tires as that demand might well exceed the allotment by over two times.

Stark and Eckles, as well as the War Transportation Committee, urged industries to immediately form car riding clubs.

It is necessary that companies qualify under the requirements of the Office of Defense Transportation by setting up a labor management committee which can vouchsafe that the employee seeking new tires lives more than two miles from the plant and is bringing at least three others in his car to work.

Only 12 companies have qualified so far in establishing such committees and members of these companies are outside the county.

Must Explain Snappy Titles

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Publishers of "Crime Detective" must explain to the Post Office Department why they published such allegedly suggestive titles as "With So Many Things In Her Diary" and "Tonight I'm The Devil."

Postmaster General Walker today ordered the magazine's publishers to appear at a hearing in Washington August 20 to give reasons for their story titles.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Helen Vancouver, 420 Galbreath avenue, sustained lacerations of the head and face and Sarah Moses, 415 Galbreath avenue, has a concussion of the brain owing to an auto accident at 4:30 p. m. Friday on Route 18, near New Wilmington.

According to a report made to the state motor police, Miss Vancouver was driving the car of Wady Moses, 415 Galbreath avenue, and she claims it was crowded off the road into a ditch.

The injured are in the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Phoney Steinbeck In Pittsburgh Jail

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—A smooth-tongued, heavy-set cripple who took dozens of Pittsburgh's little theatre enthusiasts for a nice ride this week by posing as John Steinbeck, the noted author, sat around in a small cell today while his latest hosts (the city police force) checked up on his past.

The bogus Steinbeck, now identified as Harry Dankert, described his visit to Pittsburgh as a "hilarious merry-go-round." He said that it was "the most amusing part of it" that at least 20 people insisted it wasn't Steinbeck. I don't know how the impression lasted so long.

Dankert was picked up near Ligonier yesterday as he stood along the William Penn highway trying to thumb a ride east. He disappeared Wednesday night, while a score of guests sat around in a downtown hotel waiting for him to appear and pay for a midnight supper that he had ordered for them.

The drydock was refloated in nine days and the American crew has now gone to work on the job of raising the scuttled ships, it was said.

Fly Girl East For Operation

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8.—Four-year-old Sharon Bell, daughter of a Vancouver, B. C. policeman, today was en route by plane to Philadelphia for an emergency bronchoscopic ward to remove a key from her throat.

The key lodged in the child's throat Monday. Sharon was accompanied on the flight from Vancouver in an airliner by her aunt, Mrs. A. Murchison. They are expected to reach Philadelphia late today.

Army-Navy Salute For Massillon, O.

Governor Bricket To Head Mass Celebration In Municipal Stadium

MASSILLON, O., Aug. 8.—Marking the first time the Army and Navy have officially "saluted" an entire American community for outstanding contributions to the war effort, ranking military and government officials will gather here on Sunday, August 9, for a mass celebration in Massillon's municipal stadium.

With Governor John W. Bricker, Col. A. Robert Ginsburgh, and Commander Leslie Jacobs, representing the State, Army and Navy, respectively, in the reviewing stand, colorful patriotic ceremonies will be staged in a two-hour parade and program in which military units and war heroes will be featured.

Massillon was chosen for this signal honor because it represents the typical small industrial city and has achieved an outstanding record for war production. Approximately 40 per cent of the city's population is engaged in direct war work, while another 1,000 of its men are serving in the country's armed forces. These and their dependents constitute an abnormally high percentage of Massillon's 27,000 population.

In addition, Massillon's war plants have operated consistently since before the national emergency without the loss of a single man-hour of work because of strikes or labor grievances.

Coinciding with the opening of the mass celebration the Tyson Roller Bearing Corporation will dedicate its new $1,350,000 manufacturing plant, in which parts will be made for the new Commando planes in addition to bearings for guns and other war materials. Ralph Maxson, President, said the new addition will employ approximately 700 workers.

JUDGE HAS ANNIVERSARY

President Judge W. Walter Brahm was receiving the congratulations of his colleagues of the Lawrence County Bar Association yesterday, the occasion being the 20th anniversary of his admission to the bar.

In these two decades the Judge has gained a foremost place in the legal profession and is looked upon as one of the finest lawyers in Pennsylvania, as well as a mature judge whose opinions are widely sought.

SENTENCES PASSED

Three prisoners were before the Lawrence county court Friday for sentence.

Joe Pusco, of 408 Duquesne street, who pleaded nolle contendere to a charge of indecent exposure, was sentenced to pay the costs in the case and was placed on probation for a period of one year.

Florence Stone, alias Florence Durbin, of the Ellwood City district, charged with a morals offense, was sentenced to pay the costs and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of four months.

Later she was recalled by the Judge, who told her that he had been informed that she had been enticing soldiers home on furlough, and inasmuch as this was a defense area and that the government discounted such actions as hers, her sentence would be changed to 10 months imprisonment in the state industrial home for women, at Muncy, Pa.

John Bokar, of the Ellwood district, charged with the theft of automobile tires in Ellwood City, and of receiving stolen goods; also with having struck Policeman Philip Benninghoff with a stone, was sentenced to the Pennsylvania Industrial school at Camp Hill, Pa.

Bokar waived a court hearing. The charges were preferred by Chief of Police E. M. Hartman, of Ellwood City.

Bokar, it is claimed, stole tires from cars owned by John J. Ruczal, of High street, New Castle; Joseph Wardman, of mounted route 7, Ellwood City, and looted the garage of Earl Beighley, of 332 Wamum avenue, Ellwood City, of five tires and wheels, valued at $250.

COMMISSIONER CONVENTION

Lawrence county's county commissioners, George H. Bollinger, William R. Walton, and Joseph F. Travers, are looking forward to attending the convention of the Pennsylvania county commissioners, at Erle, Pa., on August 31, September 1 and 2.

The program of the convention has been received and the county officials are expecting to take a little time out from their duties to take in this important meeting.

PRAECIPES FILED

Praecipes for judgment for want of affidavit of defense have been filed by the Borough of Ellwood City, through Solicitor Humphrey, against M. Giuseppe, Frank Straw, Pasio Guerra, Lanzo Bezzeli, Hamilton Brothers, V. V. Johnston and Clarence Cambio.

MOTION COURT

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock, motion court will be held, with Judge John G. Lamore presiding. Divorce court occurred Friday, when several cases were heard by each of the judges, decisions upon which will be handed down within the next few days.

APPOINTMENTS COMING

William R. Walton, chairman of the Lawrence County Defense Council, with Mayor Charles B. Mayne and Sheriff Clyde D. Badger, will soon announce the selection of a captain and two lieutenants for the Pennsylvania Defense Auxiliary and aide to the Pennsylvania Defense Corps.

Indict Three Pants' Makers For Fraud

Souderton, Pa., Men Accused Of Embezzling 2500 Army Trousers

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8.—In the first war fraud indictment returned by a federal grand jury in this area, three partners in the closed Souderton (Pa.) Pants Manufacturing company were under $5000 bail each today, charged with embezzling 2500 army trousers valued at $10,000.
The defendants are Paul Waltsman, 43, his cousin, Maxwell Waltsman, 49, and Max Apfelschnitt, 65, all from Philadelphia.

Special Assistant Attorney General M. H. Goldschtein said the government shortly will ask similar indictments against two Philadelphia firms. Goldschtein is investigating alleged frauds from contracts let by the Philadelphia Quartermaster depot, which clothes the entire army.

Fraud By Careful Cutting
It was reported that the defendants obtained subcontracts from a Philadelphia contractor for 90,000 pairs of army trousers. By careful cutting of the 300,000 yards of cloth obtained from the quartermaster depot to fulfill the contracts, it was charged the defendants were able to make 2500 extra pairs.

They are charged with removing army buttons and labels from the extra pairs, substituting other buttons and their own tags, and selling them in the open market.

Dutch Queen To Start For London

Tells Newspapermen Holland Will Never Submit To Axis

By JEAN CRAIGHHEAD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Queen Wilhelmina, 61-year-old ruler of the Netherlands, prepared to start the long return trip back to London today after a state visit to Washington during which she heard President Roosevelt predict that Holland once again would win its freedom and independence.

Her majesty was scheduled to be a guest at President Roosevelt's press conference during the morning and then planned to spend a quiet day at the White House until she starts the trip back to England where her government in exile is still directing Netherlands effort in the war.

Queen Wilhelmina, the first reigning queen ever to hold a press conference in Washington, said that "my people have been overwhelmed by force but they have never submitted nor will they ever submit."

The queen also spent a memorable day in addressing the American congress, visiting the Washington navy yard where the president presented her with a sub-chaser, for the Holland navy and later, amid impressive and colorful ceremonies, laid wreaths on the tombs of George Washington and the unknown soldier.

Greeted with applause everywhere she went in the capital, her majesty pledged congress that her nation would never give up resistance to the Nazis in Europe nor the Japs in the far east. She insisted that she was determined that there shall be "no surrender" of her country of 80,000,000 people as she promised that they would continue their resistance to German and Jap invaders "in every practicable shape or form."

Stevens School Plans Reunion

Annual Reunion Of Former Students Of Thaddeus Stevens On August 21

Plans have been rounded out for the fourth annual reunion of the Thaddeus Stevens School, which will include all students and teachers and others who attended any time during 1898 to 1920, it is announced today by president, Howard Reynolds at whose home the meeting was recently held.

The occasion will take place in the grove of Cascade Park, August 21 in the form of a basket picnic dinner served at 6 o'clock. Following entertainment will be provided, and it is noted that this year, due to the present war, prizes will not be solicited. Instead, Defense Stamps will be purchased for the awards in the various contests, making an all round "Victory Gathering."

In addition to Mr. Reynolds, other officers who are sharing in getting details lined up include the following: vice-president, Edwin Clark, secy, Francis Hammond. Teachers' invitations are in charge of Mrs. Bertha Stewart Campbell; teachers' registrations by Mrs. Grace Blackford Hulme; sports, Arthur McKel; tables, Mrs. Lina Glasser Alford; prizes, Humphrey Richards and Paul McGaffie; coffee, Harry Reiman; publicity, Mrs. Olive Lutz Richards and W. C. Druschel.

This year's reunion has aroused much interest, and a large representation of guests is anticipated, with reminiscing of 'school days' providing a highlight on the program.

Keystone State Tire Situation Serious

August's Quota Exhausted By July—Application Before August 1

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8.—A large portion of Pennsylvania's tire allotment for August will be absorbed by unfilled applications held since July by war price and rationing boards, it was disclosed today.

The office of war information declared the tire situation in the commonwealth is "serious" and stated that the situation as regards to truck tires is particularly pressing, with 66 per cent of August's quota exhausted by applications before the month began.

Although 18,560 truck tires were allotted the state this month, 12,288 applications received in July must be filled from this quota, it was announced. Of 3,848 new grade one passenger car tires allotted for August, 1,874 must go to meet the July deficit.
